Two special teachers are employed and two schools personally conducted by them, one On Meeting street and one on Beacon avenue. Since October last it has been compulsory for the girls of the 8 B Grammar grade to attend one of these schools half a day, once each week for half the school year. One class of seven boys has also been taught. The pupils have been earnest and interested to learn, and their ability to accomplish practical ends was happily shown, last January and February, to some at least of the city officials. The teachers are in every way competent. They feel that it would be well for their pupils to give a year instead of half a year to the work. PHYSICAL TRAINING. Under the direction of our special teacher the progress and results in this...
