She fell limply to the floor, and crouched there with the newspaper in her hand. After a time she spread it out on the floor and spelled through the dancing characters in the long column. Her name was not mentioned. Those thirty years had outweighed the devotion of more than half a lifetime. It was the old woman s only revenge, and she had taken it. No tears came to Miss Williams s relief. She gasped occasionally. How could she? how could she? how could she? her mind reiterated. What difference would it have made to her after she was dead? And I--oh God--what will become of me? For a time she did not think of Strowbridge. When she did, it was to see him smiling into the eyes of Elinor Holt. Her delusion fell from her in that hour...
