

Diaries of a Madman: Raving Lunatic

By Trevor Johnson

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. When they said I had issues, I told them I had subscriptions. Help make this true by purchasing this book series. I recommend purchasing through Kindle. Soon to be made available on iBooks. Contained within are the writings of one Trevor M. Johnson- notably performed during boredom and within various mental asylums, commitment was against his will. Although there are crimes documented within, and discussions annotated, the Author is not possessed of a criminal nature and is very peaceful- but denies that he has a problem controlling his mental actuations. Accused of thought, he prefers to perceive. There are several diagnoses that are applicable and one that is nominally sexist; although, they may be discussed, the diagnoses will not be revealed to the general public. If a person, or groups of persons, were to use these writings for academic purposes then it would be best to remind their reader(s) that these are the journalsdiaries of a dissident and unwilling patient. Written as absurdly as possible, these writings are not to be taken as a sample of the authors cognitive skills or as a sample of the authors actual writing- in other words it is supposed...
