At 40 minutes p. m., the water being very smooth, and the ship going at the rate of five knots, a loud rumbling noise was heard under her bottom, and a sensation felt exactly like that of a vessel sliding over a rock; the rudder was so much agitated that the man who was steering could scarcely hold the wheel. No difference could be observed in the color of the water, nor the smallest rippling. The captain concluded at first that it must have been a rock; but after arriving in London there was not, on examination, the least sign of any rub on the copper; and it was concluded that there must have been, in the spot above mentioned, a volcanic eruption, the shock of which did not exceed 15 seconds. The situation of the Aquila was very near that of the Silhouette, in...
