Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Common School System of the State of New York: Comprising the Several General Laws Relating to Common Schools, Together With Full Expositions, Instructions and Forms for the Use of the Several School Officers and Inhabitants of Districts, a Complete Digest of the Decisions of the State Superintendent In submitting the following work to the inhabitants and officers of school districts, the various town and county officers charged with the local administration of the common school system in its several departments, and the public generally, the compiler has been actuated by an earnest desire to diffuse as widely as possible, a more thorough and accurate knowledge of the history and details of that system than has hitherto appeared, having been connected with the department of Common Schools, with a slight interval, for the past fourteen years, during which period five successive Superintendents have been in office, and the system has undergone numerous important modifications, the necessary materials for a complete digest of its various provisions, as well as for the requisite adaptation of the numerous expositions, decision? and instructions of the department, to the present state of the law, were probably more fully within his reach than that of any other individual. The volume of Laws and Decisions prepared and published by Gen. Dix in 1837, however valuable for its intrinsic interest, and for its clear and lucid exposition of the fundamental principles of our system of public instruction, has become to a very great extent inapplicable to this existing details of that System; and where relied upon as a guide, by officers of districts, of towns and counties, must necessarily embarrass and mislead. The...
