The overall decline in average length of service appears to have been driven by both (1) a reduction in the proportion of beneficiaries with very long hospice stays and (2) an increase in the share of users with very short 15 stays. (See table 4.) From 1992 to 1998, the share of hospice enrollees with more than 6 months of service use declined from 9. 3 to 7. 3 percent. Over the same period, the proportion of beneficiaries who used hospice for 15 The distribution of patients between cancer and noncancer diagnoses is the...
