Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Morgaine Le Fay, sorceress and half-sister of King Arthur, contented that she has fulfilled the wills and ways of the goddesses through a life of debauchery and the pagan rites of the fairy folk, has retired into the sleepy mists of the space/time warp of Avalon. There time and aging, compared with the world outside, virtually slows to a stand-still. Within a few weeks Morgaine, besotted with mystic, apple-cider wine, sleeps away 15 centuries into the 21st: After waking to her own nightmarish screams and visions of hellish torments, she finds an astounding manuscript left at her bed side by Merlin, her old druid friend, whom she thought had betrayed her by becoming a Christian back in the 5th century. Poetic instructions influence her re-entry to the outer world on a quest to locate - to her initial disgust and outrage! - Christian missionaries; namely two men, an American inspirational writer and a disgraced Scottish bishop. Merlin has foreseen them as the means to saving the natives of Avalon from a fate worse than death, and from the loss of the protective misty veil which conceals their sacred if defiled island! Morgaine emerges at night from Avalon in the vicinity of Glastonbury Abbey ruins and soon locates Evan Jonarcson, an inspirational writer from the USA. Evan has written a prophetic novel inspired by dream-premonitions which proves to reveal every detail of his unique relationship with Morgaine. By means of his Formatrix Criterion Scriptural study method, which enables a person to subject the sum of all knowledge to the teachings of Jesus, the Avalonians are won to Christianity. This culminates in their exit from Avalon as a collective body of...
