Three women, united by love and kinship, struggle to conform to the social norms of the times in which they lived. In 1931, Katherine Henderson leaves behind her small town in Kansas and the marriage proposal of a local boy to live on her own and work at the Sears and Roebuck glove counter in Chicago. There she meets Annie-a bold, outspoken feminist who challenges Katherines idea of who she thinks she is and what she thinks she wants in life. In 1997, Katherines daughter, Joan, travels to Lawrence, Kansas, to clean out her estranged mothers house. In an old suitcase she finds a wooden box containing trinkets and a packet of sealed letters to a person identified only by a first initial. Joan reads the unsent letters and discovers a woman completely different from the aloof and unyielding mother of her youth-a woman who had loved deeply and lost that love to circumstances beyond her control. Now Joan just has to find the strength to use the healing power of empathy and forgiveness to live the life shes always wanted to live. This item ships from multiple locations.
