Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When it comes to gifts for Mom or Dad, really, how many golf shirts and chocolates are they going to put up with before they start hinting to your sister that they must have raised a herd of uncreative, humorless kids? Maybe get em this book instead. It s a tongue-in-cheek perusal of a whole lot of different topics that, based on a million talks and conversations with my senior audiences and peers over the last fifteen years or so, are insightfully examined in the hope of evoking a couple of sighs, two or three ah-hahs, maybe a shallow tear or two, and a bushel basket full of smiles and giggles as we help seniors find the words for what our hearts have been telling us ever since we began realizing that we re no longer twenty-nine years old. The book is a compilation, expansion, and enhancement of six years of editorials that I ve written as the Editor of our local Detroit metro area American Senior Gazette newspaper, circ. 30,000; and those have been based in part on twelve years of prior days spent working as a marketing wizard for a home health care company, a position which enabled me to listen to, help educate, and usually entertain senior citizens in their homes, in their residential communities, and in their various coffee clubs. Therefore, the book s about life, love, grandkids, funerals, death, the afterlife, the before-life, the full-life, the non-life, marriage, sex, progress, hobbies, history, and pretty much anything else that has particular interest for people over fifty. And there re a lot of us! Other topics, like a senior s take on government, war, or...
